Will also give $3.00 in cash, each Saturday, to the person living the greatest distance from Oregon, in Holt county, presenting receipted bill for merchandise, purchased from CLUB members. All bills for goods purchased must be presented on date of sale, and are only good for that date. Their Winter Course.

For several years the L. L. C. C. club, of Forest City, a literary organization has had an existence, and during the winter months it meets twice a week for literary work. Since originally organized Mrs. John H. Keeves and Mrs. W. H. Alkire have become residents of this city, but have maintained their membership with the club.

On Thursday, of last week, October 28th, the club met at the home of Mrs. J. H. Keeves, in this city and organized for the winter course of reading and study. Those present were: Mesdames J. A. Lyons, Albert Jones, Bert Fairbanks, Chas. France, R. H. Sheffield, James Shumate, Long, W. H. Alkire and J. H. Keeves. Mrs. Sheffield is the president of the club; Mrs. France, secretary and Mrs. Fairbanks, treasurer.

The club at each meeting devotes an hour to literary study and reading and an hour to social matters. They meet in rotation at the homes of members, and the hostess on each occasion serves lunch during the social hour. Mrs. Keeves on this occasion served a dainty luncheon, and the members returned to their homes, well filled up with the goodies served, and enthusiasm of the good things to follow during the winter in the way of the mind's food.

From Mrs. Knowles

A letter received by a friend here in Oregon, from Mrs. L. R. Knowles, from Los Angeles, Texas, under date of Oct. 25, has the following, which will be read with interest by her many friends: "This is to inform you that we have all left Natalia, Texas. Lawrence has gone to the Pacific Coast—to San Francisco—to work for the Pacific Coast and Electric Co. Kate is teaching English in the San Angelo High school, and I am adrift in the world, so I came out here for the present to stay with Kate. We sold our little home and the contents in Natalia; I did so regret leaving it but did not care to stay on alone, so now it is all gone. This is a fine town. Such gloriously wide streets, broad pavements, or rather side-walks. The elevation here is about 1500 feet, the air feels fine, and just now we are having just about such weather as Missouri is entitled to in October. Kate is looking fine, and is well, too. This is one of the great cattle sections of Texas. Things are pretty bad down on the border in the Mexican country. A raid was made and a home burned within three miles of our place last Friday. I don't know what will happen next if the government at Washington does not get busy. The people in the Rio Grande valley are getting most awfully tired of the present state of affairs. Kate's address, which also for the present is mine, is Box 50, San Angelo, Texas. Remember us to all the dear old friends."

A Statement.

My immediate predecessor, the Rev. J. H. Thompson, Ph. D., is one of the most energetically active men in the Missouri conference, and made a record here, which, in many items, has not been equalled in years at least.

While the success of the past year has not been ideal by any means, still we have held our own fairly well in many respects. There has been a slight gain in membership, in spite of several removals by letter. The attendance at the public services, especially at night, has increased. A working Epworth League has been organized and maintained. The average attendance at Sunday school for the months of August, September and October, according to the records, is an increase of 18 above the same months of the previous year. The total contributions for missions was $29.00 in advance of last year, and the grand total for all of the benevolent objects was more than double that of any year of the past ten.

Praised By Boston Papers.

Hanover, N. H., October 23.—Fred A. Hager, of Johnstown, Pa., has made good on the Dartmouth college football team and was with the squad that invaded Princeton today for the annual game with the Tiger, and it was expected that he would get into the game. He played an end in the game last Saturday against the University of Vermont. He played end with the varsity eleven against the scrubs this week. If he plays 15 minutes in one of the team's "big games" he will have earned his varsity "D." The Boston newspapers have commented favorably on the work of Hager. One journal says: "Hager is light, but fast. He possesses keen football intelligence and is quick to grasp the fine points of the game."

Hager is a son of Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Hager, of Moxham. He was a member of "Buck" Rodgers' Johnstown High school eleven of 1912, which won the championship of Western Pennsylvania.

Young Hager is well known here in Oregon, and has often visited here with his parents, who are cousins of C. D. Zook.

His Birthday.

Hallowe'en comes once a year, and so do birthdays. Levi French had one last Sunday, October 31. His wife and her mother, Mrs. Ed Gould, set about for a surprise, and it worked out beautifully. About forty responded to the summons, nearly all bringing well filled baskets with them. The menu consisted of pumpkin pie, fried chicken and hundreds of other good things in between. A most jolly time was had by everybody. Those present to help Levi celebrate his 24th year in this world were: D. J. French and family, John Gehringer and family, Oren French and wife, Ottumwa, Iowa; Mrs. John Nowland and children, St. Joseph, Mo.; Ed Gould, wife and grand-daughter, Helen; Levi French and family, Will Carroll and family, W. E. Keown, Frank Lynch and family, Jas. Carroll, and Geo. Cummings and family. A GUEST.

Died

George M. Ringgold, a former resident of Nodaway county, died at his home in Mound City, Tuesday, Oct. 26. Funeral services were held at Mound City the following day, and were conducted by Rev. Lewis M. Hale, pastor of the Baptist church, of Maryville. Burial was at the Mound City cemetery.

Mr. Ringgold was 71 years old and had lived in Nodaway county up until eight years ago, when he moved to Mound City. He is survived by his wife and two children, Mrs. Jeanette Wehrli, of Mound City, and James Ringgold, of Denver, Colo. He also leaves one brother, James M. Ringgold, of Maryville.

Elevator Burns.

The elevator at Clearmont, owned by E. W. Carter of Hepburn, Iowa, burned about 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning, October 21. About $1,500 worth of grain was destroyed. Two cars standing near the elevator, one filled with trash and the other in which some Italians were living, were burned. About fifty or sixty tons of coal belonging to the Garrett Lumber Company, in bins near the elevator, were burned.

This elevator was the property of E. W. Carter, of Forest City, who is secretary and manager of the Farmers' Elevator Co., of Forest City. We understand Mr. Carter was fully insured.

Kennish's Hog Sale.

As advertised an annual sale of Poland China Hogs was conducted under tent on the Kennish farm, five and one fourth miles north of Mound City, Friday. The auctioneer was R. P. Hosmer of Maryville, who in his introductory remarks paid Mr. Kennish well deserved compliments as to his honest methods of business. This was not new to Mr. Kennish's many friends and customers both, far and near—Mound City Journal, Oct. 25.

The sale was well attended, and good prices were realized on all the offerings. T. A. Callow and George Jackson, of Oregon, were among the purchasers.

Cannot Compare With Holt and Oregon.

Abner Carson and wife have returned from a six weeks' visit with their daughter, Mrs. George Prussman and husband, of Pawnee City, Nebraska. Abner says they had a fine time, and while Pawnee City has about 2,500 population, and is the county seat, they cannot compare with Oregon in business or pretty homes—they have a fine court house, but Abner says our court house "lays theirs in the shade." He also says they have a good country and good soil, but Holt county is far in the lead in productiveness.

He Is Stricken.

News reaches us that Warren Huntsman, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Stanley, Wis., received a slight stroke of paralysis on Monday, October 18, which has partly involved one of his sides. Mr. Huntsman has been suffering for some time with hardening of the arteries, and while he has not totally lost the use of his limbs, he is in a serious condition. Mrs. Huntsman and son, Wayne, are with him. His sons, Carl and James, are here, while Charles and daughter, Mabel, resides at Hutchinson, Kan.

H. Pinney to Hospital.

Harry Pinney was accompanied to the Emsworth hospital in St. Joseph by Dr. Davis and Robert Conner, Wednesday evening, and will undergo an operation for hernia there. He became ill at midnight, Tuesday, and has suffered quite severely since, so severely that he had to be driven to the station and helped to walk.

He has been employed the last few weeks at the Fred Kemper farm, northeast of Graham, but his physicians do not expect he can return home for a week or ten days.—Maltland Herald, Oct. 28.
